

Full Time Nurse Practitioner

CHP seeks a certified a Nurse Practitioner to provide specialized nursing services that may include women's health care, family planning, and primary care.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Thorough knowledge of nursing techniques, medical and lab equipment, testing procedures and medication.
- Considerable knowledge of interviewing and counseling techniques.
- Ability to work independently;
- communicate effectively both verbally and in writing; deal tactfully and patiently with clients; establish and maintain records, reports and statistical data; use initiative and judgment;
- Maintain effective working relationships with other related agencies and professionals
- Perform and record total physical examination; obtain vaginal, cervical, urethral and rectal cultures, papanicolaou smears, and other laboratory specimens appropriate.
- Skill in diagnostic procedures for diseases and the drug therapy needed for treatment of these medical conditions.
- Must be proficient in the use of medical and laboratory equipment.

Education and/or Experience: Bachelor's degree from an accredited school of nursing; Master's degree in nursing; completion of a state acceptable Nurse Practitioner's program; a minimum of one year's experience is desirable. National certification in specialty is preferred.

Necessary special requirements: Licensed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a Registered Nurse; certified by Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a Nurse Practitioner; Prescriptive privileges; DEA

Position: Full time

City/Town: Central/Northern Berkshire County

Salary: Commensurate with experience.